The Apache Camel community would like to thank everyone for participating either by submitting their logo design proposal, commenting and collaborating with the authors or casting the vote.

With this feedback from the community the Camel Project Management Committee (PMC) will announce the new official Apache Camel Logo, stay tuned for that!

On behalf of the Apache Camel community,

Zoran

*Erm, well they were in a week ago, but I'm late to write this announcement, posts to the mailing lists were more prompt
