

Wiki Home

This is the home of the Apache OpenOffice Community Space. This space is provided so the whole OpenOffice community can plan development. It is where overall project-development materials and information for volunteers are compiled.

This is not where user and developer documentation is provided. User Documentation, the Developer's Guide, and the Building Guide are available on the MediaWiki.

To participate on this Wiki, create an account for yourself. If you also wish to add and edit the content, you can obtain permission for your account by sending an e-mail to "dev@openoffice.apache.org" (public mailing list) with subject "[CWiki] Account Whitelisting" and specify your username and real name in the body.
