

Status Report - August 2013

Submitted to board@apache.org on August 9, 2013

DESCRIPTION

Apache Flume is a distributed, reliable, and available system for efficiently collecting, aggregating, and moving large amounts of log data to scalable data storage systems such as Apache Hadoop's HDFS.

RELEASES

- * The last release of Flume was version 1.4.0, released on July 2, 2013.
- * No further releases are planned at this time.

CURRENT ACTIVITY

- * Development activity continues with steady stream of issues being logged and resolved.
- * A total of 113 issues have been filed, and 67 issues have been resolved between the period starting May 9, 2013 and August 7, 2013.
- * Approximately 1198 messages were exchanged on the dev list in the past three months, while a total of 383 were exchanged on the user list in this period.

COMMUNITY

- * No new additions were made to committers on the project. The last addition of a committer was done on November 12, 2012 when Patrick Wendell was appointed as a committer.
- * No new additions were made to the PMC on the project since it graduated from Incubator.
- * Currently there are:
 - Total of 197 subscribers to the developer list
 - Total of 445 subscribers to the user list
 - Total of 22 committers
 - Total of 20 PMC members

ISSUES

- * There are no issues requiring board attention at this time.