Administering applications

This section focuses on the available alternatives for managing applications. This section will show you how to perform these application management activities using both Geronimo Administration Console and command line options. For some of the examples shown in this section we will be using the HelloWorld.war sample application created in the Quick start - Apache Geronimo for the impatient section.

- Installing and removing applications
- Starting and stopping application modules