

Project Winston

Purpose of Project Winston is to create a centralised test system that will allow the Apache CloudStack community to contribute to testing. This system can be split into separate functions:

1. Tester submissions of environments types which they have available for testing on
2. Automated submission of compatible tests+test scenarios to testers
3. Running of tests (in the appropriate test environment)
4. Submission of test results to a central location