Project Winston

Purpose of Project Winston is to create a centralised test system that will allow the Apache CloudStack community to contribute to testing. This system can be split into separate functions:

- Tester submissions of environments types which they have available for testing on Automated submission of compatible tests+test scenarios to testers
 Running of tests (in the appropriate test environment)

- 4. Submission of test results to a central location